MAP OF TOUR

ITINERARY

Day 1: Delhi

Welcome to Delhi, the nation's capital, a vibrant city with an unbelievable amount of history! Your tour guide will meet you at the airport, and then you will transfer to your hotel. Depending on your arrival time and how tired you are, the tour guide will plan the rest of the day with you accordingly, which could include some sightseeing, plus a welcome dinner.

Day 2: Delhi

Today, you can do any of our City Tours or Slum Tours. We suggest visiting Sanjay Colony, a small slum built on 25 acres of land south of Delhi near the Baha'i Lotus Temple and the ISKCON temple in the morning. Learn about working and residential life and witness how, despite the challenging living conditions, it remains an area charged with positive energy and a strong community. You will also learn about the NGO programs directly supported by your visit.

In the afternoon, we suggest doing some more traditional sightseeing of your choice such as visiting India Gate, Qutub Minar, Humayun's tomb, Agrasen ki Baoli (a stepwell) and Gurudwara Bangla Sahib, a Sikh temple and one of the largest community kitchens in India which feeds more than 10,000 people per day. In the evening, if you still have the energy, you can explore old Delhi and go on our popular food tour if you wish!

Day 3: Delhi / Jaipur

We'll leave Delhi in the morning by car, arrive in Jaipur (5 hrs.) by the afternoon, and check into our hotel. We will then go on an orientation walk around Jaipur, also known as the Pink City of India, because it feels like every building within the historic center is made and painted of pink terracotta colour. Later in the afternoon, we will head to Nahargarh Fort for the stunning sunset view of the Pink City.

Day 4: Jaipur

Today we will go on a full-day tour of Jaipur. In the morning, we will visit Amber Fort with its magnificent views, and in the afternoon, we will continue to explore the rest of the city, such as Hawa Mahal, City Palace and Jantar Mantar, and Bapu Bazaar, if you wish to do some shopping. There's also the option to see a Bollywood film at the famous Raj Mandir cinema.

Day 5: Jaipur / Agra

In the morning, we'll drive to Agra, home of the Taj Mahal and the Magnificent Agra Fort. On the way, there is the option to visit Fatehpur Sikri fort and Abhaneri Chand Baori, one of the largest stepwells in the world, where you descend many steps before reaching the water level.

We will arrive in Agra in the afternoon, where we'll check into a family-run guest house; afterwards, we'll explore Mehtab Bagh, a small 22-acre Persian-style garden located next to the Yamuna River, offering a very unique view of the Taj Mahal. Later, we'll visit the massive Agra Fort, built with red sandstone. Head back to the hotel in the evening after dinner. If you are not tired, have a drink on the hotel's rooftop overlooking the Taj!

Day 6: Agra / Delhi

Today we'll wake up early to see the Taj Mahal at sunrise- the best time to visit. We come back to our guest house to have a late breakfast and then check out and drive to Delhi.

On the way, we will stop at a small village where you will get an understanding of how the majority of India's population lives with their unique traditions and customs, and visit one of our Rural Community Projects to see how you support this by taking the tour with us.

We'll arrive in Delhi in the evening, check into your hotel, and you probably won't have much energy to do anything else!

Day 7: Agra / Delhi

This morning, we will finish the tour and we will transfer you to the airport.

80% of our post-tax profits go directly to Reality Gives, which runs high-quality education programs in underprivileged areas where Reality Tours also runs tours.

We started over a decade ago in Dharavi (Mumbai), and Reality Gives is now also running classes in New Delhi in the Sanjay Colony slum as well as in Naujheel, a village in rural Uttar Pradesh.
